Background

Jakin is a Director at Ecovis Clark Jacobs with more than 19 years of public practice experience in the accounting and business services profession.

Primarily advising in the areas of taxation, business structuring, asset protection, financial systems and compliance, Jakin is committed to providing high quality and valued service to his clients who range from professionals, high net wealth families, SME's and corporate groups. Jakin works closely with a client base across a broad selection of industries including advertising and media, investment, financial services, retail/wholesale, construction and healthcare.

Jakin also manages the external client audit and review engagements of the practice. Focusing mainly on statutory and regulatory audit requirements, Jakin assists clients to identify areas of non-compliance and gain confidence in the integrity of the information, systems and processes of their business.
